

Anthroposophy Atlanta Newsletter June 2015

Dear friends,

Summertime greetings to all of you! Branch life is quiet as so many friends are traveling throughout the season. In this brief newsletter, we share a few upcoming events that you might like to know about as you plan the months ahead. We hope you can join in as time allows as we build a stronger community.

Eastern Region Meeting

July 16 7:00 pm

Location to be determined

Join Elizabeth Roosevelt and Nathaniel Williams for a conversation about building a more cohesive and inspired region! See here for more information.

Glen Williamson performance and workshop

We are pleased to announce that actor and storyteller Glen Williamson, of Anthropos Theatre will be visiting Atlanta soon. Last year, Glen starred in all four of Rudolf Steiner's Mystery Dramas at the Festival in Spring Valley, and he recently performed A Refugees' Tale in Atlanta with Laurie Portocarrero.

On Friday, August 7, 2015 he will perform The Incarnation of the Logos- his one-man show re-telling the birth and childhood of Jesus Christ. This will be an evening performance and the Decatur venue will be determined soon.

Saturday, August 8, Glen will lead a workshop where we explore how to use the Word to facilitate Soul Transformation. The workshop will take place at the home of Angela Foster, and will be open to anyone who is interested in experiencing Glen's enthusiasm and talent. It is scheduled from 10am to 1pm, with light fare provided. Suggested fee $30 - $50 per participant. Email afoster@thirdbody.net for to register or for more details.

Anthroposophical Society AGM

Engage! Meeting the Events of Our Time
2015 Fall conference and members' meeting

October 9 – 11
Webster Groves, MO

This event will feature panels of striving individuals who are taking anthroposophy out into the world in exciting ways. Through new initiatives, they are meeting challenges such as homelessness, addiction, isolation, and genetic engineering.

Online registration opens July 15!

anthroposophy.org

Verse

May the fire we light consuming the dead branches of a living past kindle to life in us
the fire of love,
which creates anew.
May the fire of love
consuming the dead word
within our soul, unite us in the living word of John:
"He must increase but I must decrease."
So may the mingling of the many flames
betoken an interweaving

of our destinies
in sacrificial deeds of love to light a beacon of new hope for all.

- Francis Edmunds

Looking Ahead

This newsletter seeks to offer a picture of the activity and voices of anthroposophy in Atlanta. To contribute to future issues, contact anthroposophyatlanta@gmail.com. More about our branch can be found on our website.

In service,
Elizabeth Roosevelt, for Anthroposophy Atlanta